

Davis v. Mega Corp Order

CASE NO: US-DIST-NY-8849. IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK.

ROBERT DAVIS, Plaintiff, v. MEGA CORP INC., Defendant.

MEMORANDUM DECISION AND ORDER

FACTUAL BACKGROUND: The Plaintiff, Robert Davis, was employed as a senior software engineer at Mega Corp Inc. for a period of ten consecutive years. On March 15, 2025, the Plaintiff's employment was terminated by the Defendant. The Plaintiff filed this lawsuit alleging wrongful termination, claiming the decision was discriminatory and in direct violation of state and federal employment guidelines.

FINDINGS OF THE COURT: The court examined employment records and email correspondence. The evidence shows that the Plaintiff's termination did not align with Mega Corp's standard performance evaluation protocols, and was based on discriminatory motives related to age. The court determines that the termination was indeed wrongful, unlawful, and discriminatory under state guidelines.

VERDICT: The court rules in favor of the Plaintiff, Robert Davis, on the wrongful termination claim.

DAMAGES AWARDED: The court awards the Plaintiff a total sum of $250,000 in damages. This award is comprised of $150,000 in back pay and $100,000 in compensatory damages for emotional distress. The court denies the Plaintiff's request for punitive damages, finding insufficient evidence of malice or reckless indifference.

SO ORDERED. Dated: June 25, 2025.
